👤 Participant 306452140

It was easy to judge it

👤 Participant 128619958

It was hard to place the trade the app freezes

👤 Participant 391112265

It was hard to see which percentage to take

👤 Participant 425064326

All the necessary tools are available and helpful

👤 Participant 400848508

Not every function was working

👤 Participant 123228570

To be honest, it felt too technical even though I learned some things about technical analysis, but in my experience, it's at a very elementary level. So, looking at the app, I'm not sure what made a good swing trade. I think I was more confused and lost.

👤 Participant 106260902

It was kind of confusing on the app so made it hard to know if I did it or not I think I did though

👤 Participant 400848508

I think if you ask the question like a button to confirm or ask me to type YES on some form, that would be better or even if it was a passcode confirmation, like a SMS for security reasons.

👤 Participant 106260902

I'd want a confirmation page before I did the live trade just to make sure I was fully happy

👤 Participant 106641488

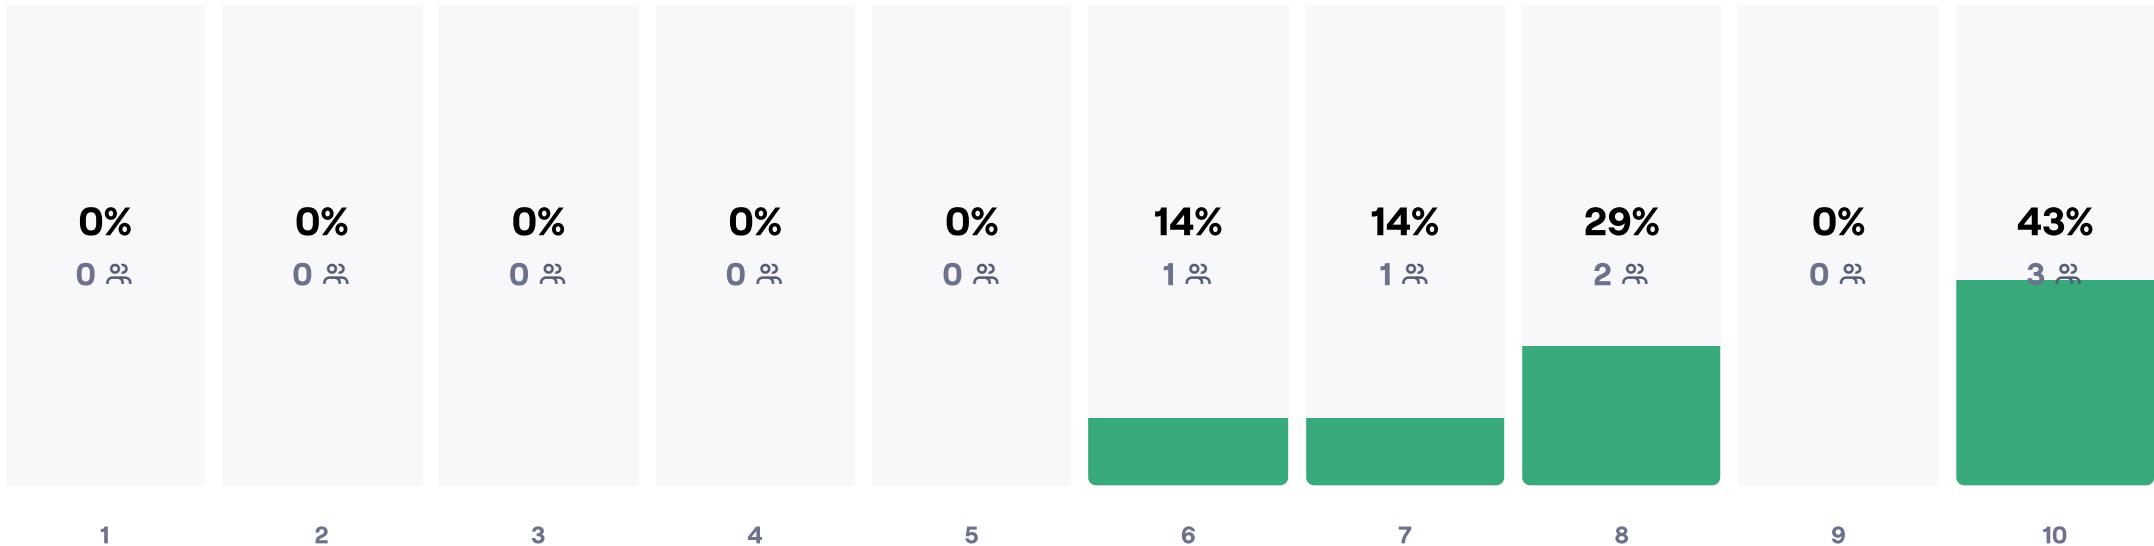

I felt confident the order would execute live as intended.

👤 Participant 306452140

The screen provided valuable information on the trades and their values

👤 Participant 391112265

It's the one to stimulate the price

👤 Participant 425064326

The advice on the alert page for each item that I needed to take action was probably the most helpful.

 Participant 106260902

All the information provided was very helpful

 Participant 400848508

The graphs on the page helped me with the history of the stock

👤 Participant 425064326

I would like to have seen some values in terms of real numbers, like when it said take 25% or 50% doesn't really give me much information. Having real money values are probably better.

I can't think of any other thin I'd need

Participant 128619958

Gain or lose stop button

Participant 306452140

I will add option to stop a loss automatically

Participant 391112265

I would add more easier ways on how to trade and instructions to follow

Participant 425064326

I think having an alert on the actual top bar or a button on the actual button to say, there are something to take care of.

 Participant 106260902

Add the graphs

 Participant 400848508

Just make it more simpler so it was easier to follow and navigate
